ANTARCTICA CRUISE

Antarctica is the world's last true wilderness - a vast, shimmering realm of ice where towering glaciers, playful penguins and majestic whales create an otherworldly backdrop to exploration. Visiting offers a rare sense of awe and tranquillity, revealing nature at its most raw and untouched. Most travellers begin in vibrant Buenos Aires, adding some cultural flair before the adventure south.

The best time to travel is during the Antarctic summer, from November to March, when daylight is long, wildlife is most active and sea conditions are typically calmer, giving you the greatest chance to witness incredible scenery and unforgettable encounters.

RECOMMENDED PARTNER

The 14 night Antarctica Cruise by Celebrity Cruises offers sleek, resort-style comfort, outstanding dining and service - and a polished, premium onboard experience that elevates Antarctica's wild beauty beyond what most alternative expedition suppliers provide.

FEATURED ITINERARY

Days 1-4 | Buenos Aires & At Sea

Wander stylish districts in Argentina's vibrant capital, browse chic boutiques, and feast on world-class steaks and Malbec before sailing out at sunset. Settle into ship life and unwind en route to the wild south.

Day 5 | Ushuaia Explore the world's southernmost city, framed by glacial peaks. Discover its frontier history and savour fresh seafood or Fuegian lamb.

Day 6 | Cape Horn, Chile Cruise the legendary tip of the continent, where dramatic cliffs and untamed seas meet in true explorer style.

Day 7 | Gerlache Strait, Paradise Bay & Schollart Channel Glide through icy straits alive with whales, towering glaciers and inquisitive penguins - Antarctica at its most breathtaking.

Day 8 | Elephant Island Witness the remote refuge of Sir Ernest Shackleton's crew and encounter seals, penguins and ancient moss landscapes.

Days 9-11 | At Sea & The Falklands Recharge at sea and visit Port Stanley, home to hardy locals and charming penguin colonies.

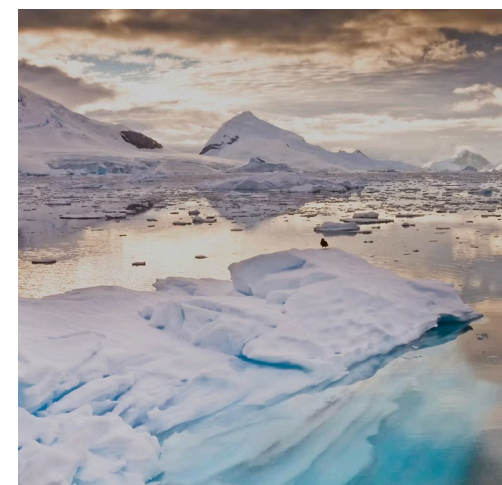

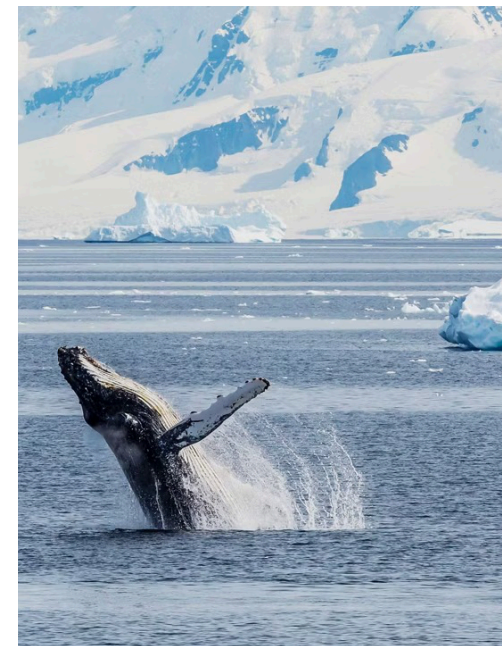

Days 12-15 | Uruguay & Argentina Spot sea elephants, whales and penguins on Península Valdés, enjoy a day in Montevideo, then return to Buenos Aires to round off your adventure.

INCLUDES:

- MEALS AND SNACKS ON BOARD
- LIVE SHOWS AND ENTERTAINMENT

DOURO RIVER CRUISE

Sail through one of Europe’s most unspoiled wine regions, where terraced vineyards and traditional farms frame every bend of the river.

Starting and ending in the “City of Bridges” this journey takes you through Régua’s heartland and on to Salamanca’s golden, UNESCO-listed grandeur. Enjoy tastings at historic quintas and soak up the valley’s timeless beauty at a relaxed pace.

We recommend travelling between April and October, when warm, sunny weather, vibrant landscapes and the region’s celebrated wine season create the perfect conditions for cruising, sightseeing and outdoor experiences.

RECOMMENDED PARTNER

We’re sharing the 8 day Enticing Douro river cruise by AMA Waterways, who offer a more personalised, premium experience with exceptional cuisine, immersive excursions, luxurious ships and attentive service, creating a memorable journey along the Douro.

FEATURED ITINERARY

Day 1 | Porto Settle aboard your stylish river ship and enjoy dinner as the journey begins.

Day 2 | Régua Sail into peaceful Régua and visit the exquisite Mateus Palace, exploring its remarkable Baroque interiors and elegant gardens.

Day 3 | Vega de Terrón Take in the scenery before heading to Castelo Rodrigo, a hilltop fortified village with winding lanes and sweeping views - choose a guided tour or rewarding hike, both with regional tastings.

Day 4 | Salamanca Travel to golden-hued Salamanca for a guided tour of its grand university, intricate cathedrals, historic plazas and medieval treasures.

Day 5 | Pinhão Cruise deeper into vineyard country for a port tasting at a local quinta. Later, enjoy an exclusive dinner at Quinta da Roêda, surrounded by iconic terraced vines.

Day 6 | Régua Discover Lamego and its sanctuary, leisurely or via the Holy Staircase hike. Enjoy tastings of local specialties followed by a relaxed lunch at a quinta.

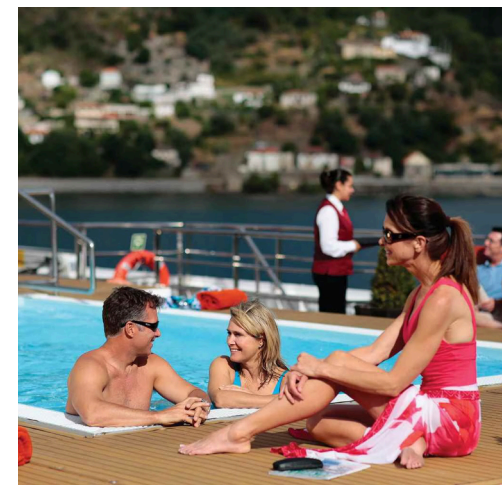

Days 7-8 | Porto & Home Explore Porto’s historic heart on a guided tour, then sample its celebrated port wine. Round off the day with a magical evening Illuminations Cruise. Disembark to begin your journey home, carrying the flavours and charm of the valley with you.
